CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

INFORMATION REPORT

This Document contains information affecting the National Defense of the United States, within the meaning of Title 18, Sections 793 and 794, of the U.S. Code, as amended. Its transmission or revelation of its contents to or receipt by an unauthorized person is prohibited by law. The reproduction of this form is prohibited.

DATE DISTR. 10 April 199 Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies NO. OF PAGES REQUIREMENT REFERENCES 25X1 THE SOURCE ALBRICE TO CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVENSE) THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVENSE) This is UNEVALUATED Information to the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Futchen in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training centers trungen (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Futchen. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 2. Comment. 2. Comment. 2. Comment. 3. Comment. 3. Comment. 4. Comment. 5. Comment. 5. Comment. 6. Comment. 1. Comment. 2. Comment. 3. Comment. 4. Comment. 4. Comment. 5. Comment. 1. Comme	COLUMN	01.3 17
Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies NO. OF PAGES 1 REQUIREMENT REFERENCES 25X1 This is UNEVALUATED Informat The APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 rearuits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Tungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungar - Sanyuan (N 25-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. Group of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea. 1. June 1952 the party Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungar - Sanyuan (N 25-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the party Group the Korea. 1. June 1952 the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea. 3. June 1952 the 20 Army Group the Korea. 3. June 1952 the 20 Army Group the Korea. 4. June 1952 the 20 Army Group the Korea. 4. June 1952 the 20 Army Group the Korea. 5. June 1952 the 20 Army Group the Korea.	COUNTRY	China/Korea	REPORT
DATE OF INFO. PLACE ACQUIRED The SOURCE ALBUTION IN THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) This is UNEVALUATED Informat The APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) This is UNEVALUATED Informat The APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) This is UNEVALUATED Informat The APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) The APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) This is UNEVALUATED Informat The APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. (FOR KEY SEE REVERSE) THE APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE. TO APPR	SUBJECT		DATE DISTR.	10 April 1953
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Tungen (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. In May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungen - Sanyuan (N 25-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Morea. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 2. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 3. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 4. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 5. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 4. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 4. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 5. Line 30 Army Group in Morea. 6. Line 30		THESE COMMUNICATION 20 MINU 20 MINU, 68	NO. OF PAGES	1
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunter recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 2. Juneart. 2. Sanyuan (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 3. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 5. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 5. Juneart. 6. Juneart. 6. Juneart. 6. Juneart. 7. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 2. Juneart. 3. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 5. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 1. Juneart. 2. Juneart. 3. Juneart. 4. Juneart. 5. Juneart. 6. Juneart.	DATE OF INFO.		REQUIREMENT	25
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. June 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the Shahsien (N 26-26) E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-26) E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the Shahsien (N 26-26) E 117-33 area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the Shahsien (N 26-26) E 117-33 area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the Shahsien (N 26-26) E 117-33 area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea and the 1952 for the 20 Army from Korea and the 1952 for the 20 Arm	PLACE ACQUIRED		REFERENCES
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 2. In May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Somment. 1. In May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea and	THE ACCOMED		COLO CE	25 X 1
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 2. In May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Somment. 1. In May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. June 1952 the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea and		D)/\\ \\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\\	D) C	VALUATED Information
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Morea. 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Morea. 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Morea. Comment. 4 Indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 Army from Morea and			DYLLE	VALUATED IIIIOIIIIau
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Tungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. 1052 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungan - Sanguan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Karea. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 Army from Korea and
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. in May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanguan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Comment. Indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea.				25
In early February 1953, approximately 10,000 recruits left Fukien for Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. in May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 25-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Comment. Indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea.
Northeast China as replacements for the Chinese Communist 20 and 26 Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Comment. 1. Some 20,000 of these men were 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. Comment. 1. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. Comment. 1. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. 1. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea.
Armies, 9 Army Group. These men were part of a group of volunteer recruits who had been concentrated in western Fukien in June 1952 for six months training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. in May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Gomment. Indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea.		 training at the 9 Army Group training center at Yungan (N 25-26, E 117-18) and at other places. In early February 1953, over 10,000 of these men were still in Fukien. 1. Comment. in May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Morea. Gomment. Gomment. withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Morea.		arly February 1953, approximately 10,) 000 recruits left Ful still in Fukien. 1. Comment. in May 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungar - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Gomment. Gomment. indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea. the withdrawal of the 20 Army from Korea and	North Armie	arly February 1953, approximately 10, meast China as replacements for the Cl ps, 9 Army Group. These men were par	000 recruits left Ful sinese Communist 20 a of a group of volum	and 26 ateer recruits
1. Comment. 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Comment Indicates the probable Withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea. Indicates the probable Indicates t	North Armic who b train	arly February 1953, approximately 10, neast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were partial been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cen	000 recruits left Ful pinese Communist 20 a of a group of volumen on in June 1952 for a cer at Yungan (N 25-2	and 26 nteer recruits six months 26, E 117-18)
1952 the 9 Army Group established a training center in the Shahsien (N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Gomment. indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea. the withdrawal of the 20 Army from Korea and	North Armic who h train and s	arly February 1953, approximately 10, neast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were partial been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training centrated to ther places. In early February	000 recruits left Ful pinese Communist 20 a of a group of volumen on in June 1952 for a cer at Yungan (N 25-2	and 26 nteer recruits six months 26, E 117-18)
(N 26-26, E 117-45) - Yungan - Sanyuan (N 26-13, E 117-33) area. Some 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be trained at this center and then serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Somment Indicates the probable withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea. the withdrawal of the 20 Army from Korea and	North Armic who h train and a still	arly February 1953, approximately 10, neast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were partial been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February 1 in Fukien.	000 recruits left Ful pinese Communist 20 a of a group of volumen on in June 1952 for a cer at Yungan (N 25-2	and 26 ateer recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group in Korea. Comment. indicates the probable	North Armie who h train and s still	arly February 1953, approximately 10, neast China as replacements for the Clas, 9 Army Group. These men were partial been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February 1 in Fukien. Comment. 1952 the 9 Army Group established a training concentration.	2000 recruits left Ful ninese Communist 20 a 5 of a group of volum on in June 1952 for a 3 cer at Tungen (N 25-2 253, over 10,000 of	and 26 nteer recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were in May withdrawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from Korea. the withdrawal of the 20 Army from Korea and	North Armie who h train and s still	arly February 1953, approximately 10, heast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were partial been concentrated in western Fuking at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February 1 in Fukien. Comment. 952 the 9 Army Group established a to 26-26, E 117-45) - Turgar - Sanyuar	2000 recruits left Fuldinese Communist 20 at of a group of volumen in June 1952 for a ter at Tungen (N 25-2953, over 10,000 of teating center in the (N 26-13, E 117-33)	and 26 ateer recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were in May e Shahsien area. Some the withdrawal of the 20 Army from Korea and	North Armie who h train and a still	arly February 1953, approximately 10, heast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were parted been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February 1 in Fukien. Comment. 952 the 9 Army Group established a to N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungar - Sanyus 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be serve as replacements for the 9 Army Course.	2000 recruits left Ful nimese Communist 20 a s of a group of volumen in June 1952 for a ser at Yungan (N 25-2 1953, over 10,000 of raining center in the a (N 25-13, E 117-33, trained at this center group in Korea.	and 26 nteer recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were in May s Shahsien area. Some
	North Armie who h train and s still 1.	arly February 1953, approximately 10, heast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were parted been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February 1 in Fukien. Comment. 1952 the 9 Army Group established a to N 26-26, E 117-45) - Tungar - Sappus 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be serve as replacements for the 9 Army (Comment.)	2000 recruits left Fulcinese Communist 20 at of a group of volumen in June 1952 for at rungan (N 25-2,953, over 10,000 of a (N 26-13, E 117-33). Trained at this center in Korea.	and 26 nteer recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were in May Shahsien area. Some er and then in mid-February it was transferred from Northeast China to the area where it had been stationed polor to its commitment to the	North Armie who h train and s still 1.	arly February 1953, approximately 10, heast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were parted been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February: In Fukien.	2000 recruits left Fulcinese Communist 20 at of a group of volumen in June 1952 for a ser at Yungan (N 25-2,953, over 10,000 of raining nearer in the law 26-13, E 117-33 rained at this center in Korea. Indicates the park of the 20 Army frail.	in May Shahsien area. Some area then arobable Korean war. the presence of the 60 Division, 20 Army, in Chekiang in late December.	North Armie who h train and a still l. (arly February 1953, approximately 10, heast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were parted been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February: in Fukien. Comment. 1952 the 9 Army Group established a to 1952 the 9 Army Group established a to 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group established a to 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group established a to 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be serve as replacements for the 9 Army Group established a to 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be 10,000 to 30,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be 10,000 to 30,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be 10,000 to 30,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be 10,000 to 30,000 to 3	2000 recruits left Fulcinese Communist 20 at of a group of volumen in June 1952 for a cer at Yungan (N 25-2953, over 10,000 of raining nearest in the (N 26-13, E 117-33) rained at this center in Korea. indicates the parameter of the 20 Army francier of the 20 Army francier of from Northernstein 100 ansferred from Northernstei	and 26 atter recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were in May shahsien area. Some ar and then probable rom Korea and east China to
This evidence that the 20 Army, at least, is no longer in Northeast	North Armie who h train and a still l. [2 s	arly February 1953, approximately 10, heast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were parted been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February in Fukien. Comment Co	2000 recruits left Fulcinese Communist 20 at of a group of volumen in June 1952 for a cer at Yungan (N 25-2953, over 10,000 of raining center in the (N 26-13, E 117-33) trained at this center in Morea. The Morea. The Morea. The Morea. The Morea of the 20 Army francier to its commitment of the commitment of the second in Morea.	and 26 nteer recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were in May shahsien area. Some ar and then crobable from Korea and east China to ent to the the
China, tends to discredit the movement of replacements for the two	North Armie who h train and a still l. [2 s h h h h h h h h h h h h h h h h h h	arly February 1953, approximately 10, heast China as replacements for the Cles, 9 Army Group. These men were parted been concentrated in western Fukining at the 9 Army Group training cent other places. In early February 1 in Fukien. Comment. Comment. 20,000 to 30,000 recruits were to be serve as replacements for the 9 Army Comment. Althorawal of the 20 and 26 Armies from the area where it had been stationed in mid-February it was trained area where it had been stationed in mesence of the 60 Division, 20 Army, this evidence that the 20 Army, at least	on recruits left Fulcinese Communist 20 a of a group of volumen in June 1952 for a cer at Yungan (N 25-2953, over 10,000 of along center in the (N 26-13, E 117-32) crained at this center in Morea.	and 26 nteer recruits six months 26, E 117-18) these men were in May shahsien area. Some er and then crobable rom Korea and east China to ent to the the December. Northeast

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

SECRET

														(N)
	STATE	x	ARMY	Ev	. X	NAVY	x	AIR	ж	FB1	AEC			25X1
Г										• • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • • •	.t	 	\	' 0
	(Note:	Washington	Distri	hutlon	Indic	sted By "Y".	Field	Distribution	B. //	#"		 		- O